Dear Judge Abrams:

I respectfully write to ask you to appoint an attorney to represent me on post sentence motions. Specifically, I believe that my lawyers, David Stern and Jeremy Schneider were ineffective. Many of the decisions they made were made with out my consent or input, most significantly, I repeatedly asked them to investigate and contest jurisdiction and venue in my case.

I informed them that the meeting the government alleged had occurred between me and Mr. Hunter had if fact, never taken place. They failed to seek, investigate or procure documents which would have reveled this fact, and their failure to do so resulted in my unjust conviction. This is just one example of their ineffectiveness which can only be fully explored and presented with the assistance of a new unconflicted attorneys.

Thank you for your consideration.
